

LALA LONDONO

Interactive Media Designer

Hello, my name is Laura Londoño and I'm a 22 years old. I'm an Interactive media design student from Cali, Colombia with interest in interactive experiences design, videogame design, character design and UX/UI. Love to draw, read and you can usually find me at the movies.

I am a very creative and spontaneous person, very committed and engaged to work and team work. I always like to give innovative and fun solutions to problems.
